

"IRANA'S LULLABY"

W n M Ronnie Taheny © Apr 29th 2015

V1

Can it be that time can break your heart?

Memories like the ones that start every morning, morning, morning, morning.

V2

Gunfire, screams/smoke and tied-up face-down

Dragged into a room and never found, found, found, found.

V3

Lost off-track in that dark inhuman race

Out there still after years of all our longing, longing, longing, longing.

V4

You're (I'm) still trapped on this side of life

Sign, seal, post like the 100 hopes sent before this, for this, for this, for this.

V5

Who could know, when fate tore us apart

We were 3, a tiny beating heart, heart, heart, heart.

When you cry...this is my...lullaby.

I never stopped searching.
