Detoxifying Sea Kelp Clay Mask

Soft, detoxifying, and naturally derived. This ready-to-use creamy clay mask is an excellent natural detoxifier, with added proteins for locking moisture into your skin. The Detoxifying Sea Kelp Clay Mask is a great addition to your weekly skincare routine, and even makes for a fun night in with friends! It's smooth, soft texture allows for easy application with your fingers or you can use a brush. The Kaolin Clay specified can be substituted for other types of clay for variation in color.

1. Add all Phase A ingredients to a mixing bowl and mix vigorously until it forms a viscous liquid with all gum dissolved into solution. A minimixer is helpful when mixing in the xanthan gum.
2. Add Phase B to Phase A with a large mixing fork to incorporate solids, then add Phase C into the thick mixture and stir well.
3. Thoroughly mix Phase D together in a small dish and add to the clay mix with the large mixing fork. Be sure to mix well enough to remove any lumps.

Makes 100g (3.53 oz) of product.
