August 12, 2020

International Shipping

There are still significant delays and restrictions on international shipping due to COVID-19 service disruptions. We are reopening international shipping to some destinations based on our research and will continue to monitor the situation.

Currently, we are resuming Priority Mail International, Express Mail International and UPS International shipping to the following countries. Note that these countries are still experiencing some delays and most do not guarantee delivery times. We are not shipping via First Class International to any countries at this time.

Countries to which we are shipping:

Australia
Belgium
Canada
Denmark
France
Gibraltar
Iceland
Ireland
Jamaica

Netherlands
New Zealand
Norway
Spain
Sweden
Switzerland
Taiwan
United Arab Emirates
United Kingdom

 We are still only accepting order values in excess of $700 USD to comply with Australian regulations.