Natural Body Oil Spray

All Natural, Entirely Beneficial. An ode to our Luscious After Bath Oil, this natural formulation is made with NatraSil, a plant-based alternative to synthetic silicone and can be combined with virtually any oils you choose. Vitamin E is added as an antioxidant to protect your skin and the oils from free radicals. The oils featured below are light feeling and readily absorbed into the skin, with no greasy feel. Neossance Hemisqualane is a sugar-based, light emollient that leaves your skin feeling silky. This moisturizing body oil can be used as a spray or massage oil.
