Press Release

Contemporary Welsh landscape painter Sarah Jane Brown is pleased to announce a new exhibition of paintings at Off The Wall Gallery, Cardiff in November. Her new collection of work, 'My Peninsularity', explores the experience of living in a remote and ancient landscape.

The unique Pembrokeshire landscape, powerful and humbling, inspires Sarah Jane's richly expressive and explorative work. This new exhibition develops the perspective of isolation, presenting an insightful, compelling portfolio of landscape paintings.

"The landscape reminds me of the important things in life", says Sarah Jane Brown. "This geographical isolation makes me a different person, allows me to observe, to view the world objectively. You can walk out onto St David's Head, a remote protected landscape, and know that a thousand years ago it wasn't any different. I feel less caught up with insignificant stuff, it's much more about what's important, what's fundamental."

'My Peninsularity' exhibition opens on 5th November where there is the opportunity to meet Sarah Jane and discuss her work. This special exhibition runs until 30th November. Opening hours: 9.30am-5.30pm Tues-Fri, 10.00am-4.00pm Sat. For further details, please visit www.sjbart.com.

Sarah Jane Brown studied Fine Art at the West Wales School of the Arts, specialising in Painting. She was awarded 'Student of the Year', and since graduating with a First Class Honours Degree, Sarah Jane's career as a full time professional artist has gained momentum and recognition. She has exhibited widely throughout the UK, as well as London and New York, and enjoyed several successful solo shows. Notably, she has been selected for the Cork Street Open in Mayfair and twice for the Royal Society of Marine Artists at the Mall Galleries in London. She also spent three months as Artist in Residence at Oriol y Parc, the Pembrokeshire Coast National Park Visitor Centre. Her work now attracts collectors across the UK and overseas, and can currently be seen at Etcetera Gallery in St Davids and Off the Wall Gallery in Cardiff.
