

Pembrokeshire artist Sarah Jane Brown to hold Open Studio event August Bank Holiday weekend

Welsh artist Sarah Jane Brown will open her Pembrokeshire art studio this August Bank Holiday weekend, where summer visitors can watch her paint, chat about art and take a look behind the scenes. You can join Sarah Jane for 'wine and Welsh cakes' and browse through her latest work, from 11 am to 5 pm, every day between Friday 27th August and Bank Holiday Monday 30th August.

Press Release

Sarah Jane Brown Contemporary Welsh Landscape Painter

There will be a series of short demonstrations during the event where visitors can look forward to an insight into some of the techniques behind Sarah Jane's expressive style and her ability to capture emotion upon the canvas. The demonstrations will take place at 2pm each day and last approximately an hour.

If you're keen to give painting a go or even brush up on skills you already have, then take a look at Sarah Jane's art workshops and classes running this summer and autumn. There are options available for all abilities, and Sarah Jane will be happy to answer any questions that you might have. There's further information on her website, or follow @sjbfineart on social media for the latest news.

Sarah Jane's art studio is located just off the A487 between Penycwm and Solva: SJB Fine Art Studio, Brawdy Business Park, 1a St David's House, Haverfordwest, Pembrokeshire SA62 6NP. There is free parking on-site, and toilet facilities are available within the studio. Usual rules apply, so please wear a mask and use the hand sanitiser provided.

Outside of special events, normal studio opening hours are Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday 12-3 pm. Appointments are welcome outside of these hours; please call to arrange your visit on 07874 219942. For those unable to visit, you can view paintings online on Sarah Jane's website sjbfineart.com.
