

BALTIMORE

As the largest city in Maryland and the second-largest seaport in the Mid-Atlantic, Baltimore is a city of full of activity. With a rich history and vast cultural opportunities, Baltimore is a place of variety. Let Eric take you there in this painting which encapsulates the feeling of this great American city.

1. "B-more" a popular nickname for Baltimore and a great motivational saying.
2. Chris Becker—CEO Cunningham Farms / Fleet St. Kitchen
3. Rebecca Alban Hoffberger—Founder and Director American Visionary Museum
4. Darlene Hudson—Lexington Market
5. Lance Humphries PhD.—Washington Monument (the original)
6. Baby Babe Ruth—George Herman Ruth was born and raised in Baltimore.
7. The Baltimore Orioles—the cities historied MLB franchise
8. Richard Lee Hutt Jr.—the Perfect Gentleman II Barbershop
9. Pat Whelple—U.S.S. Submarine Torsk
10. Baltimore is famous for its crab cakes but they look nothing like this.
11. The U.S. Naval Academy is just down the Chesapeake from Baltimore.
12. Nick Prevas—Communications Manager American Visionary Museum
13. Baltimore commissioned artists to design emblematic crab statues throughout the city.
14. Ray Snyder—Park Ranger Fort McHenry ("Oh Say Can You See?")
15. Andy Norris and his father Tony—Tony founded world famous Bertha's Muscles in Fell's Point.
16. "Ace of Cakes" made Charm City Cakes and Duff Goldman household names.
17. The goose is for Eric's good friend Wendy.
18. Matt Baker—Terrapin Adventures
19. The story is that Abraham Lincoln was disguised as a woman to change trains in Baltimore. Not a very attractive woman, just saying.
20. Patrick Dickerson—Babe Ruth's Birthplace Museum
21. Dr. Colin McDermott—Veterinarian for the National Aquarium (see #40)
22. The U.S. Navy has an Operational Support Center in Baltimore
23. "Quoth the raven. . ."
24. Oy, a real Baltimore Oriole.
25. Patricia D Adkins—Team Chessie Paddle Boats
26. Beautiful flag of Maryland—based on the crests of Lord George Calvert
27. Bob Rene Goodenow—U.S.S. Chesapeake Lighthouse Ship (see #38)
28. "Charm City" is another nickname of Baltimore based on a charm bracelet promotion in the 1970's.
29. Inner Harbor happy fish
30. Baltimore Ravens are the cities NFL franchise—the only team named after a poem.
31. Kate Rowe—Media Relations for the National Aquarium (see #40)
32. Famous Chesapeake blue crab—yum yum.
33. Edgar Allen Poe was a resident of Baltimore when he died. He is buried there.
34. Harbor Place is an eclectic mix of restaurants and shops.
35. The U.S.S. Constellation bears the name of the original launched in 1797.
36. The Inner Harbor is part of the beautiful Chesapeake Bay system.
37. "Chessie Paddle Boats" are only one choice for rental water craft available on the Inner Harbor.
38. U.S.S. Chesapeake Lighthouse Ship—part of the Historic Ships Tour
39. U.S.S. Torsk "The galloping ghost of the Japanese coast"—part of the Historic Ships Tour
40. The National Aquarium in Baltimore
41. The Legg Mason Building
42. Inner Harbor Marriott
43. Seven Foot Lighthouse and Museum
44. The Power Plant is a repurposed electric plant from the turn of the 19th century.
45. 750 East Pratt St.
46. Baltimore World Trade Center and Observation Deck
47. Commerce Place Building