

CABO SAN LUCAS

At the southernmost tip of the Baja of Mexico lies the Cape of Saint Luke better known by its Spanish name of Cabo San Lucas. Geologically stunning, with El Arco at Lands End and desert hills; meteorologically splendid, with over 300 sunny days a year; and ecologically stupendous, with seals, sea lions, and vast varieties of fish, Cabo, as it is known to fans, has become tourist hot spot and one of the safest in the world. Cabo is also the Marlin fishing capital of the world. Put on your Bermudas, your sunglasses, and your straw hat and join Eric at the End of the World, in Cabo San Lucas, and you'll feel fine.

1. These outcroppings are known as End of the World.
2. There are many sailing charters to see the tip of the Baja.
3. Pez feliz de Cabo
4. The promontory El Arco
5. Lands End Point is the farthest tip of the Baja of Mexico.
6. Parasailing is a popular activity in the harbor.
7. Lover's Beach
8. Cabo San Lucas is marlin fishing headquarters.
9. La gente call it Cabo.
10. Dorado aka Dolphin Fish aka Mahi Mahi aka delicious sport fish
11. Everyone loves sea turtles.
12. Seals and sea lions like Mr. Poncho are common in the area.