

FLORENCE

What to love in Florence Italy? Florence (Firenze) is magnetic, romantic and busy, its narrow streets evoke a thousand tales, and its cuisine is so wonderful the tag 'Fiorentina' has become an international label of quality assurance. Florence is home to world class art and the people there make it all the more fascinating. Picture yourself walking about the streets of Florence Italy in early 1500th Century Florence, Italy with Michelangelo walking about the piazza during in the early years of the Renaissance. The Benedictine Monks echoing their chants of devotion. Eric has painted only a few of the treasures that await your personal adventure to Florence.

- |   |                                   |                                     |
|---|-----------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 1. Florence Cathedral                                 | 7. Bell Tower of Badia Fiorentina | 13. Florence Vineyards              |
| 2. Palazzo Vecchio                                    | 8. Uffizi Gallery                 | 14. Benedictine Monks               |
| 3. The Bargello                                       | 9. Bronze replica of David        | 15. Arno River                      |
| 4. Giotto's Campanile                                 | 10. Shakespeare                   | 16. Gelato – a local favorite treat |
| 5. Piazza Michelangelo ( Michelangelo Square ) | 11. Michelangelo                  |                                     |
| 6. Basilica of St, Lawrence                           | 12. Roman Soldiers                |                                     |