

HOLLYWOOD

Where else can you take in all of the glitz, glam and varied characters than in Hollywood, California? Enjoy this unique painting by Eric Dowdle, featuring the historic Chinese Theater on Hollywood Boulevard. Turn back time and feel like you are headed to a big Hollywood movie premiere with all the top names as you enjoy this fun print or puzzle.

1. Originally Grauman's Chinese Theater (1926) now the TCL Chinese Theater.
2. The Cross at Caheunga—overlooking Hollywood.
3. The missing sign would have cost $7000 in royalties to put it in.
4. Casablanca (1942)—arguably the greatest film of all time.
5. Gone with the Wind (1939)—adjusted for inflation this is the highest grossing and most viewed film of all time.
6. This area is rife with street performers.
7. Character playing Charlie Chaplin.
8. A pink poodle, perfect for Hollywood.
9. A Hollywood Star leaving his hand prints outside the Chinese Theater.
10. It is fun to see what Stars your shoes and hands match.
11. Eric painted this to reflect the golden age of Hollywood in the 1920's and 30's.
12. Getting you star on the Walk Of Fame means you have arrived as a celebrity.
13. United Artist founders Charlie Chaplin, Douglas Fairbanks, and D.W. Griffith. Don't know where Mary Pickford has gotten to.