

POLYNESIAN CULTURAL CENTER

The Polynesian Cultural Center (PCC) is a Polynesian-themed theme park or living museum located in Laie, on the northern shore of Oahu, Hawaii. Within eight simulated tropical villages, performers demonstrate various arts and crafts from throughout Polynesia. In this tropical feast for the eye, Eric captures all of the singing, dancing and cultural displays from this amazing place to visit.

1. Polynesian Cultural Center, established in 1963.
2. Happy fish in paradise
3. Fire Dancers
4. HA—the breath of life, is the title of the main performance.
5. Tongan cultural dress and the lakalaka dance.
6. Samoan cultural dress and the taualuga dance.
7. Maori cultural dress and the haka dance.
8. Fijian cultural dress and the rotuma dance.
9. Tiki are Polynesian carvings of a protective deity.
10. Hawaiian cultural dress and the hula dance.
11. Eric's daughter who worked at the Polynesian Cultural Center.
12. Tonga is a nation of 176 islands.
13. Tongan drumming exhibition.
14. Replicas of the Easter Island Moai.
15. Samoa is composed of U.S. Samoa and Independent Samoa, divided by the International Date Line.
16. Aotearoa is the Maori name for New Zealand, their homeland.
17. Fiji is an island nation based on an archipelago of 332 island and over 800,000 people.
18. Hawaii is the most isolated island chain in the world. It is the only state that was once a kingdom and is the most densely populated.
19. Tahiti is the largest of the islands that make up French Polynesia.