

SAN DIEGO

The historical Hotel del Coronado takes center stage in this painting of scenic San Diego. Known as the most popular wedding destination in the United States, this beautiful resort has been attracting tourists since 1888. It is easy to see why San Diego is nicknamed "America's finest city."

1. Love watermelon on the beach but what is up with that knife lady?
2. Building sand castles is a timeless beach past times.
3. Marilyn Monroe filmed "Some Like it Hot" at the Del Coronado.
4. Tulips are Eric's wife's favorite flower so he puts them in many paintings.
5. The ever popular burying a victim in the sand, the first sun screen.
6. Chicken in a basket.
7. Beach football is awesome.
8. As a teen, Eric was once offered some illegal substances as a teen visiting San Diego.
9. Classic surfing poses in a classic surfing spot.
10. Eric had a memorable experience with a man in a wheelchair while in San Diego.
11. San Diego was established in the 1760's.
12. Eric's first trip to the beach was on a scout trip to San Diego. The scouts ran into the ocean with clothes and hats still on.
13. The Hotel Del Coronado is a beautiful, favorite wedding venue.
14. The world famous Hotel Del Coronado, the largest wooden hotel in the world built in 1888.
15. Big beautiful San Diego Bay
16. Shamu and Sea World originated on Mission Bay in San Diego
17. World renowned San Diego Zoo and Wild Animal Park
18. Balboa Park
19. Emerald Plaza—allen wrenches
20. One American Plaza—phillips head screwdriver
21. Mission San Diego de Alcalá
22. USS Midway Naval Museum—breathtaking
23. San Diego LDS Temple
24. Eric's wife arrange for him to meet musician David Lanz before a concert in San Diego.