

SEATTLE

Nicknamed the “Emerald City”, Seattle is truly a sight to behold. Combining both futuristic and historical architecture, this amazing city fascinates its visitors. Take a ride on the monorail, explore Pike’s Place Market, or enjoy the view from the Space Needle. Whatever you choose to do in this beautiful city, you are sure to have a wonderful time.

1. Eric was asking where to find the best view of the city and a boat owner offered to take him out on the Sound to see the city.
2. This is the birth piece of the happy fish.
3. Singing Bush is homage to the Three Amigos
4. One of the artist’s sisters kissing Mel Gibson (wishes.)
5. Tour Boats are a great way to see the city.
6. “I’m king of the world!” Eric’s favorite scene to enact.
7. Eric often hides significant dates on the ships in his paintings.
8. Due to rainy, overcast days, Seattleites take full advantage of sunny days.
9. One of the artist’s sisters kissing Harrison Ford (dreams.)
10. Elliott’s Oyster House—Where Seattle goes for seafood since 1975.
11. Eric liked the clever names of the various watercraft.
12. U.S. Naval Reserve Station—historic landmark built in 1942
13. Seattle is known for coffee connoisseurs.
14. If you see tulips in one of Eric’s paintings they are a tribute to his wife Deb.
15. The monorail was built for the 1962 World’s Fair and is still used today.
16. Pike Place Market is a long standing Seattle institution.
17. Historic Belltown area of Seattle
18. J.K. Gordon Mansion
19. There are several family groups or pods of Killer Whales in the waters off of Seattle.
20. Smith Tower
21. Fourth and Blanchard Building
22. 901 5th Ave.
23. Fourth and Madison Building
24. Seattle Kingdome
25. U.S. Bank Centre
26. 1201 Third Ave.—“The Spark Plug”
27. Puget Sound Ferries are a common site.
28. The Space Needle—605’ tall—built for the 1962 World’s Fair.
29. Mount Rainier
30. Boeing has been a big part of the area.
31. Columbia Center Building
32. Seattle Municipal Tower
33. Eric saw Bill Nye propose to his wife by message plane while dining in the Space Needle restaurant.