

SEDONA

Welcome to laid-back Sedona, with its spectacular scenery, rich cultural history and vibrant art community. Join the artists on the street as they capture the stunning red rock backdrop, where the mountains have names like Coffeepot, Cathedral Rock, and Thunder Mountain. Enjoy an extra-large ice cream cone while you shop and mingle with the interesting characters on the sidewalk.

1. Popular Pink Jeep off road scenic tours
2. The Yavapai and Apache nations have lived here for centuries.
3. Take a wagon ride to a chuck wagon dinner, tasty fun.
4. Statue of Joe Beeler, famous cowboy artist—the little girl is a part of the sculpture.
5. Sedona has become a growing, vibrant artist community.
6. The Sedona Sightseeing Trolley is a popular way to see the sights.
7. Saguaro cactus are beautiful and legally protected.
8. Sinagua Plaza offers great shopping in town.
9. There is great ice cream in Sedona.
10. The beautiful sunrise Flag of Arizona.
11. This is cowboy country.
12. Prickly pear cactus candy and jelly is delicious but do not lick the cactus, bad idea.
13. Open Range is a popular, tasty dining spot in Sedona.
14. Chickens Point
15. Schnebly Hill
16. Wilson Mountain