

ABOVE CALGARY

Calgary, located in Alberta, Canada earned the nickname “Cowtown” from western culture influence. If you love rodeos the Calgary Stampede will knock your boots off. Speed along with Eric during the Dragon Boat festival or come with him to the most photographed event in fall each year, the Heritage Inn International Balloon Festival held in High River. Following a destructive flood in their community, the balloon event was designed to bring everyone together to experience joy and beauty through their trials. So let’s bring everyone together to celebrate with them, whether lying back on a grassy slope or riding along with Eric in your very own special balloon’s chosen basket, Calgary will come to life for you right before your eyes.
