

BAHAMAS

Less than 200 miles from the continental United States sits the British Colony of the Bahamas. The largest city in the Bahamas is Nassau which, due to its proximity, has become the top Caribbean cruise port. The history has been a mix of European governorship claims and it was even claimed as a Pirate Republic for a while. When tourism to Cuba was halted in the 1960's it was a boon for the Bahamas. In 1998 the first phase of the Atlantis Resort redefined the areas tourism. Celebrate this fun cultures vivid colors with Eric from the Queens Staircase to the Straw Market of Nassau Bahamas.

1. The Nassau Water Tower was built in 1928.
2. The Nassau Hotel and Resort Zone show how popular this island became after the 19th century.
3. Junkaroo Beach is where Junkaroo gets crazy.
4. Fort Charlotte was built in 1789.
5. Nassau Harbor Lighthouse is also called the Hog Island Lighthouse.
6. The iconic Atlantis Resort on Paradise Island first opened in 1968.
7. Rent a jet ski and you will have a great time skimming across in the bay.
8. Nassau is the top Caribbean cruise port in the Caribbean.
9. Eric liked the bright vendor huts along the beach.
10. The Baha Men pondering, "Who let the dogs out?"
11. British Colonial Hilton Nassau originally opened in 1924.
12. Fort Fincastle was built in 1793.
13. The Queens Staircase took around 600 slaves and 16 years to carve from solid limestone.
14. Classic British Colonial Homes dot the city of Nassau in an unforgettable way.
15. The current Christ's Church Cathedral built in 1841 is the fifth one to occupy this spot.
16. "...Bahama, come on pretty Mamma" sing some Boys on the Beach.
17. The Government House has sat on Mount Fitzwilliam since 1806.
18. The Famous statue of Christopher Columbus sits in front of The Government House.
19. Bahamas Goombay Punch—a local favorite.
20. Arrrgh, ye ole Pirate Museum, Matey.
21. The Straw Market has been a must see stop for decades.
22. Popular paddleboards and windsurfers ride the waves to experience island unlike anything else.
23. The strait between Nassau and Paradise Island is called Nassau Bay.
24. Paradise Island is known for its resorts and exclusive estates.
25. Harbor side at Atlantis—they have a great pool.
26. The Bahamas are famous because of all the Caribbean Pirate stories.
27. Nassau has some phenomenal shopping!
28. Harbor Control Tower stands out really well don't ya think?
29. The Bahamian Parliament is create by the Queen.
30. The statue of Queen Victoria sits in Parliament Square.
31. Carriage rides are the best way to see the city but I recommend the back seat.
32. Bahamas Customs Building is great in learning about the culture of these islands and its people.
33. The flag of the Bahamas—the black triangle represents the strength of the people, the yellow is for the beautiful beaches, and the aquamarine for the beautiful Caribbean Sea.
34. Nassau Bahamas Cruise Terminal will host 2-7 day cruises.
35. Gary Raffinelli of "Abbacadabra" and radio show David Halling.
36. Sea's the Day—Eric likes cleaver ship names.
37. The Bahama Mama—not the sausage.
38. Two of the smartly dressed officers of the Bahama Police Force.
39. Nassau Mail Boat dates back to the 1960's.