

D·O·W·D·L·E

CHICAGO BEAN™

Visit DowdleFolkArt.com for more great products!

CHICAGO BEAN

Notably to most, the iconic landmark in Millennium Park is Cloud Gate, but you may know it as the “Chicago Bean”. Created by artist Anish Kapoor, the sculpture was inspired by liquid mercury and reflects the Chicago skyline, while it’s elliptical shape distorts and twists the reflected image.

Millennium Park is also famous for the Chicago Dog, which contains the best ingredients for your mouth to thank you. Chicago is home to many political and screen celebrities of the 20th Century. Take a moment to find the celebrities that hail from Chicago as you build your puzzle.

1. Al Capone is America’s best-known gangster and the single greatest symbol of the collapse of law and order in the United States during the 1920s Prohibition era.
2. Mr. T’s real name is Laurence Tureaud.
3. Walt Disney lived here until he was four years old.
4. Millennium Park was originally built to celebrate the third millennium, which started on January 1, 2001 and will end December 31, 3000.
5. Oprah Winfrey—Chicago was home to the Oprah Winfrey Show for 25 years.
6. Special love birds Eric and Deb.
7. Barack Obama taught constitutional law at the University of Chicago Law School.
8. Robin Williams was born here on July 21, 1951.
9. Harrison Ford was born here July 13, 1942.
10. The Blues Brothers are famous for their song “Sweet Home Chicago.”
11. Anish Kapoor is the sculptor of Cloud Gate.
12. Chicago’s nickname “Windy City” was bestowed upon them from Cincinnati—not because of the weather but because of the long-windedness of the politicians during the late 1800’s.
13. All hail the Chicago Dog. A beef hot dog topped with yellow mustard, chopped white onions, sweet pickle relish, a dill pickle spear, tomatoes, pickled sport peppers, and a dash of celery salt, NO Ketchup, and placed on a poppy seed bun.
14. Cloud Gate Sculpture, aka the “Chicago Bean” was built between 2004 and 2006.
15. “The Big Onion” and “Sweet Home” combined are other notable names for Chicago.
16. Chicago Deep Dish Pizza—an original thick slice that is stuffed to perfection. It will melt in your mouth!