

MIAMI BEACH

Miami Beach, where gorgeous landscape meets with cultural diversity in perfect harmony! Originally incorporated on March 26, 1915, this beautiful spot was not popular until after WWII. Immigrants flood the island, adding tens of thousands in only a few decades with rich history and culture. Today, diversity thrives here thanks to places like “SoBe” –where the Art Deco District resides–, the New World Symphony, the Miami City Ballet, The Miami Beach Festival of the Arts, and the Bass Museum of Art. Of course, the beach is the hub of Miami! Explore this colorful painting and see if you can spot your favorite activity and a few Easter eggs in Eric’s painting.

1. See if you can hear the ocean from your seashells as you collect them.
2. What better spot to relax than on a beach?
3. “Wendy” the Goose is here to play!
4. Eating watermelon is the perfect snake on the beach!
5. Oh boy it’s a farmer’s tan, how embarrassing!
6. Robert “the Raven” Kraft runs eight miles everyday and has been is Miami’s famous runner since 1975.
7. 6th Street lifeguard station
8. I didn’t even think there could be a 41st street lifeguard station! That’s intense.
9. Which do you prefer, playing football or watching it?
10. Did you know that Burger King was founded in Miami in 1958
11. 5th Street lifeguard station tower marks where the busiest stretch of Ocean Drive.
12. It’s the Paparazzi incognito!
13. Meet Ally & Bob, the perfect duo.
14. 13th street lifeguard station is Miami’s most iconic and recognized tower on the beach.
15. Just soakin’ up the sun with my bestie!
16. Did you know that starfish can regenerate?
17. Yes, the Miami Ski Club is real and was founded in 1968.
18. If you don’t swim, than “dive” into a book for adventure. Get it? Dive?
19. According to Mother Nature and experts, if you find one similar object with a metal detector on a beach—like a gold ring— you are bound to find more.
20. Are these kids playing soccer on the beach, or football?
21. William Lane created the 3rd street lifeguard station along with many other recognizable ones we know and love today.
22. If you’ve never been buried in the sand, you must try! It’s quite relaxing.
23. Building a sand castle automatically makes you the Sand Castle King!
24. Look whose itching to solve a crime, “Crockett” & “Tubbs” from Miami Vice.
25. The 10th Street lifeguard station’s nickname is “the Bed.”
26. Can you find the puzzle spot on “Dalton” the Dalmatian?
27. Copper tone girl one of the few remaining billboard ads in existence located on a building in Miami.
28. Some believe snorkeling originated over 5,000 years ago!
29. A Stand-up Jet Ski make you feeling like you’re flying over the ocean!
30. The “Mayaimi” were the Native American people who lived there.
31. Look behind you!
32. What better way to explore eh Miami shores than sailing?
33. Stand-up paddle boarding is harder than it looks, but once you got it, it’s smooth sailing!
34. Port of Miami is the Cruise Capital of the world.
35. The wind is perfect to fly kites here.
36. Jetty Tower lifeguard station was inspired after a lighthouse.
37. Lucky number 17 street lifeguard station!
38. Downtown Miami holds the largest concentration of international banks in the U.S.
39. I like the simple 12th street lifeguard station!
40. The crystal clear view of Miami from a hot air balloon is breathtaking!
41. Skyscrapers—Miami has the 3rd tallest skyline in the U.S.