

NORTH SHORE

Come with Eric to one of his favorite places—the Hawaiian Islands. In this painting Eric captures to Waimea Valley—the jewel of the North Shore of Oahu. Long the domain of Kahuna's (priests) the valley served as a sanctuary and site of holy shrines for hundreds of years. From the legendary breaks of Waimea Bay to the sacred waters of Waimea Falls at Kualoa, you can feel the spirit of aloha and hang loose in this tropical wonderland. Take the plunge, like flying off of jumping rock, and journey to the numinous North Shore.

1. Surfing at Waimea Bay is both epic and dangerous at times.
2. "Jump Rock" at Waimea Bay
3. Bryan Haridsty—Eric's snorkeling guide at Shark Cove
4. Jason Frederico—Professional Surfer
5. Bradley & Autumn Elmer (Eric's daughter and her husband whom she met and married on the Oahu North Shore.)
6. Jamie O'Brien—2004 Billabong Pipeline Masters Champion
7. "Hobrah, you like go surfing?"
8. Shem Hannemann—Eric's surfing instructor
9. Derek Lanter—Waialua coffee and cacao
10. Matty Raynor—owner of Raynor Surfboards
11. Red Crested Cardinal aka Red-headed bird
12. Kofi Debra—Dole Pineapple Plantation
13. George Kam—Ambassador of Aloha
14. Stanley Matsumoto—owner Matsumoto Shave Ice
15. Ah Lan Diamond—Waimea Valley
16. Roderick & Kauaililii—Polynesian Cultural Center canoe ride
17. Tinirauarii Heilai—Polynesian Cultural Center Hula dancing
18. Sheralie Phillips—Polynesian Cultural Center New Zealand Poi dancing
19. R Kaipo Manoa—Polynesian Cultural Center Ukulele
20. Chue Outtahphone—Kahuku Farms Fruit Stand
21. Art Hannemann—founder of Seven Brothers
22. Kap Teo-Tafiti—Polynesian Cultural Center Samoan coconut shaving
23. Michael Moon—Dole Pineapple Plantation
24. Seven Brothers—"You like go eat ono grinds (delicious food.)"
25. Beautiful Waimea Valley—the jewel of the North Shore
26. Susannah Mount—Kualoa Ranch Horseback Riding Guide
27. Mary Nitsche—Giovanni's Shrimp Truck
28. There are many peacocks in the Waimea Valley
29. Tom Morrill—one of the Painting the Town Producers
30. Waimea Valley Visitor Center
31. The Koa Tree is only one of the wonderful, weird trees in Hawaii.
32. Iconic Waimea Bell Tower
33. A Shrine of the Hawaiian people
34. Eric, his wife Deb, and youngest son Cody
35. The Audubon Center
36. If there are chickens around Eric will find them.
37. Waimea Arboretum and Botanical Gardens
38. The Waimea Valley is popular for weddings.
39. The Waimea Valley was filled with hundreds of head of cattle at one point in its history. Check out the markings on this girl.
40. Waimea Plantation Cottages
41. Kualoa, long considered a sacred place.
42. Magical Waimea Falls