

D.O.W.D.L.E

PROVO™

Visit DowdleFolkArt.com for more great products!

PROVO

Over the last 15 years, the Provo/Orem metro area has been regularly named among the top 10 places to live in America. It's no wonder with it's breathtaking scenery, small town feel, and BYU sports legacy. This painting captures the architecture of early pioneer homes and buildings, along with BYU campus and beautiful rocky mountains on the Wasatch Front.

1. LaVell Edwards Stadium
2. Banners for 1984 National Championship; 1996 14 win season; and 1990 Heisman Trophy Winner.
3. Squaw Peak
4. L.D.S. Provo Temple
5. Carillion Tower
6. Spencer W. Kimball Tower
7. "Y" Mountain
8. R.W.H.—Return With Honor, a popular cultural saying.
9. C.T.R.—Choose The Right, a popular cultural saying.
10. Colonial Flag is a big supporter of the Freedom Festival.
11. Provo High School
12. Utah's first Krispy Kreme Doughnuts was in the Provo—Orem area.
13. Xactware is one of many local tech companies.
14. Heber J. Grant Building
15. Ty Detmer—football great
16. B.Y.U. arguably the best ice cream.
17. Carl G. Maeser Building
18. B.Y.U. sculpture and logo
19. Provo City Building
20. Young Brigham Young
21. Mormon Handcart Pioneers
22. Old Brigham Young Academy Building
23. Nothing says Trauma Relief like a truck full of Chocolate Chip cookies.
24. "Popcorn popping on the apricot tree," a popular childrens song.
25. Timpview High School, the Thunderbirds
26. Dear John—the unfortunate mail service.
27. Provo City Tabernacle
28. America's Freedom Festival in Provo
29. 1922 was the 1st year of BYU Football.
30. Chad Lewis in the infamous "bibs."
31. The Pizza Factory is a local favorite.
32. Many houses on the parade route decorate with bunting.
33. Smith Auto
34. Magleby's made muffins before muffins were cool.
35. Paul James in KSL blazer
36. Eric loves parade bands.
37. Aaron Francisco
38. Steve Sarkesian
39. Cold ROOT Beer—the choice of Provo brews.
40. Provo High—home of the Bulldogs.
41. Kneader's bakery and café—so good
42. George Washington celebrating America.
43. Classic Victorian homes dot old Provo.
44. Randy & Dan
45. Thomas Jefferson enjoying the festivities.
46. Jason—a good friend of Eric.
47. D.C. Tuxedos is run by friends of Eric.
48. Novell was founded in Provo.
49. Hale Center Theater is a popular acting group.
50. LaVell Edward
51. Jim McMahon
52. Stevenett's—iconic Provo Malt Shop
53. Steve Young's jersey
54. Pebbles in My Pocket is a local scrapbooking company.