SANTA'S WORKSHOP

Life is always happy at the North Pole! Santa Clause is taking care of every detail from the silver bells ringing clearly for the children to hear him to checking his list once and maybe twice. The elves are enjoying hot chocolate on the balcony, while others are hard at work building snowmen. Even the barrel monkeys are joining in the fun by creating a ladder to the helicopter. Enjoy this charming winter wonderland painting of all the hustle and bustle at Santa's Workshop getting all of the toys prepared for the holiday. Join in the fun and festivities of the giving season by enjoying this creative artwork as a painting or a puzzle.
