

D·O·W·D·L·E

TEXAS LONGHORNS™

Visit DowdleFolkArt.com for more great products!

TEXAS LONGHORNS

Set against the backdrop of the capital city, Austin, you can feel the energy and pride of the Texas Longhorns in their home stadium at the University of Texas. See the fans wave their arms and shout, "Hook 'Em Horns" while the marching band and the players enter the field at the beginning of the game. Enjoy the high spirits of the Texas Longhorns football game unlike anything before!

1. The Lady Longhorns are a great part of the University of Texas Athletics program.
2. The famous Hook em' Horns gesture was introduced by Harley Clark in 1955.
3. Smokey the Cannon—built in 1953—is a replica Civil War cannon.
4. "Hook em' Horns!" is the University of Texas battle cry.
5. Darrell K. Royal—Texas Memorial Stadium has been the home of the Longhorns since 1924.
6. BEVO—official mascot of the University—was introduced on Thanksgiving 1916 against Texas A&M.
7. "Running the Flag" is a fun event where the largest flag in the world (75' x 125' weighing 500 lbs.) shows off its colors as volunteers turn it around for all to see.
8. The University of Texas Longhorn Band was established in 1900 by a chemistry professor.
9. "The eyes of Texas are upon you." Welcome to Longhorn land!
10. Willie Nelson—this famous country music singer is a Texas native.
11. Captain America fits right in!
12. The University of Texas has won 9 National Championships!
13. Austin is the capital of Texas.
14. It's cool to see a Texas Rangers baseball fan here at a football game!
15. The Lone "TEXAS" Ranger and Tonto. We love them!
16. Roger 'The Rocket' Clemens—a famous baseball pitcher—is a University of Texas Alumni.
17. Big Bertha was purchased in 1955 from University of Chicago—because the biggest drum belongs in Texas. Am I right or am I right?
18. The University of Texas Longhorns was established in 1883.
19. "Look up here!" It's the Three Amigos!
20. The Man of Stetson—oops of Steel I mean.
21. "Hook em' HO HO Horns!" as Santa would say.
22. Texas State Capitol Building was built in 1885.
23. 360 Condominiums was finished in 2008.
24. Frost Bank Tower second nickname is the "Owl Building."
25. Hilton Austin is a wonderful hotel!
26. The Austonian Building is the tallest residential building in Texas.