TORTOISE AND THE HARE

Look! Look! You are just in time to witness Tortoise win the Big Race against Hare, the fastest creature around! Sounds impossible right? But let me tell you, Tortoise challenged Hare to a race after being teased for how slow he walks and came out on top! Hear Tortoise's fans cheering him on while Hare's fans remain stunned at what just happened. Painted in folk art style, this Aesop's Fable of The Tortoise and the Hare stands as a classic story you, family and friends can relive as you build the puzzle, piece by piece, until you triumphantly finish! On your mark, get set...GO!

1. Congratulations Mr. Tortoise! You won the Big Race! And you're even wearing your lucky hat and shoes.
2. Mr. Wolf seems to be looking for a meal rather than who won the race.
3. Mr. Deer and Robin can't wait to give the winning finish line to Tortoise as a souvenir.
4. Don't worry little rabbits, maybe Hare will win next time.
5. Lars and Frank zipped on over to applaud tortoise on his win. Wait, can sails even clap?
6. A proper goose never bets on who will win, but will always state that they knew all along who would win.
7. Mr. Fox speculates that this race will go down in history.
8. Sammy the goat, Harry the bull, and Rachel the horse are proud to see the turtle win the race.
9. Many lessons can be found in this famous story, like "slow and steady wins the race" or "Success depends on using your talents, not just having them" or in this case, sleeping away your talents under a tree.
10. Bella, Stella, and Stacey are great in encouraging Tortoise to keep "Mooooooving" so that he can win the race.
11. Looks like Hare finally woke up and realized his mistake in taking a nap, thinking he would win no matter what.
