

WITCHFEST

Every October a witchy spell is cast over the historic Gardner Village. For an entire month this quaint village of shops and restaurants hosts witches of all shapes and sizes. Adults and children indulge in this fun tradition, dressing up in creative costumes to enjoy a variety of activities with their witchy friends. Set against an orange sky at dusk, Eric has captured one of the many haunting evenings full of wicked excitement in this great Halloween painting.

1. Gardner Village Witchfest has been a fall family tradition for years.
2. The Candy Shack—sweets are my weakness.
3. Safely touched down on the landing pad.
4. Glinda the Good Witch with the Wicked Witch of the West on her left.
5. So many jack-o-lanterns, can you find all 22?
6. The three witches (the Weird Sisters) from Macbeth. "Boil, boil, toil, and trouble..."
7. Beneath the gibbous moon wonders six black cats prowling. Can you find six cats?
8. Quilting witches... who knew?
9. Things can get a little "batty" during the fun.
10. Lucinda the fabulous witch of Gardner Village
11. Air traffic control—Crone style
12. Admit it, the tune is playing in your head from the Wizard of Oz.
13. Established by Archibald Gardner for his family in 1853.
14. Tsk, tsk, tsk, No distracted flying.
15. Archibald's Restaurant is where the Goblins are or should I say is where the gobbling takes place.
16. Clear skies and smooth sailing.