Sari Silk Bangle Locker Hooking Pattern & Instructions

by Theresa Pulido

Sari Silk Bangles

Materials:

- 1 bundle/skein, approx. 12 - 14 yards of Color Crazy Sari Ribbon Strips
- 5 yards coordinating Color Crazy Fabric Strips or Rayon Ribbon
- 5-mesh Canvas:
- To cut canvas to exact size, wrap canvas around your fist to measure exact width. It should fit loosely. Add 8 squares to that number of squares for the length.
- Sample measurements: Small: 49 x 16 squares, Medium: 54 x 16, Large: 56 x 16
- Black medium to heavy weight yarn for locking medium
- Locker hook
- #13 tapestry needle
- scissors
- Permanent, waterproof, fast-drying glue like Quick Grip

Locker Hooking Instructions:

Cut canvas to size. Apply a bead of glue along short ends of canvas to secure edges. Let dry. Fold over 2 squares along long edge (After folding, small size should measure 43x10, medium 48x10, and large 50x16), creasing one row for a firm edge. Locker hook working in the round and overlapping by 4 squares to create a circle. Change colors as desired to complete. Use tapestry needle and thread with Color Crazy Rayon Ribbon or Fabric Strips to whip stitch edges and frame. Sew in tails to finish.

Optional: add beads for additional embellishment.

Note: This pattern is for a wide bangle. You can make it narrower by eliminating a row or two. You can also opt to make this out of a fun cotton print fabric or a combination of various fibers and ribbons. Experiment to get the look you like. Alternate contrasting colors for a vibrant look

(Small size bangle pattern--add squares for larger sizes)
