Petals Hot Pad or Trivet 6" x 6" Locker Hooking Pattern & Instructions with Ruched Frames

by Theresa Pulido

Materials:

- 15 - 18 yds 1/2" w Color Crazy Poppano Fabric Strips
- 15 - 18 yds 1/2" w Color Crazy Cotton Strips
- Medium weight yarn for locking medium
- 10 - 14 yds bulky yarn for padding
- 5-mesh Canvas: 36 x 36 squares
- Locker hook
- #13 tapestry needle
- scissors
- permanent color marker (optional)

Instructions:

Fold over canvas by creasing gray area. Thread color cotton strip through tapestry needle and whip stitch edges to frame. Cover corners with a couple of stitches ea. Mark petals on canvas with color marker if desired. Locker hook starting on the outside with Poppano strips. Fill in pattern. Use yarn and needle to stitch in petal padding for ruched frames. Wrap fabric stitches over padding with needle to cover completely. Use locker hook to pull up tails and sew in. Tip: stitch on additional padding for puffier petals. Optional: create backing by cutting 6 1/2" fabric square. Press seam under (press on iron fusible on back for stronger backing.) Stitch around top side about 1/4" in from edge. Use waterproof, permanent glue to attach to back of hot pad/trivet.
