HANG THOSE TOYS UP TO DRY.

Are you surprised how even a small amount of toys can cause a big mess? There's no need to limit the fun when you can keep the mess cornered instead! The Munchkin High'n Dry™ provides an easy storage solution for your little one's growing collection of bath toys, squirters, crayons and more. Its net front allows you to quickly locate your child's favorite toys, while a mesh bottom keeps them clean and dry after use. This handy toy container attaches to the corner of your wall with suction cups, keeping everything organised and off the tub floor – so you're no longer tripping over the bath toys your little one leaves behind.

Features

- Compact corner design maximises space for bath toys storage (toys not included)
- Mesh fabric helps toys dry quickly to prevent mold and mildew buildup
- Non-slip suction cups firmly adhere to most smooth bath and shower surfaces
- Works best on smooth surfaces – avoid grout lines and textures
