TINKLE To go

PRINCE LIONHEART®

Product Description

We understand, all too well, the dread of nature's call when you are out and about with your little potty trainer. There is nothing more cringe-worthy than watching their tiny hands and bare legs dangle on a disgusting public toilet seat. Prince Lionheart's Tinkle® To Go takes your dread away with this simple, compact potty training solution that can be used with any toilet, but was specifically designed for ucky public ones. Throw a paper barrier down and place the tinkle to go on top for a stable base that prevents any uck from coming in contact with your potty trainer. Folds quickly and compactly so it can fit inside a purse or diaper bag. Paper barrier refills and washable bag sold separately. Keep the germs at bay and your sanity intact!

Features

- Takes the uck out of public toilets
- Sturdy seat with comfortable, soft-touch top
