Color Stories

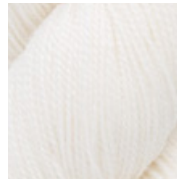

ARABESQUE: A sophisticated greyed mauve of middle value.

BARBERRY: A dusty deep pink like hedgerow blooms in high summer.

COBBLER: A jammy reddish purple like blackberry pie.

HAMMOCK: Natural sheep's white, warm and creamy.

HERON: A cool mid-grey like rain clouds.

KLIMT: The rich ochre gold of willow leaves in autumn. Inspired by the paintings of Gustav Klimt's "golden phase."

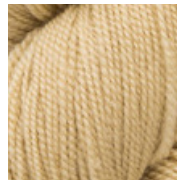

MOREL: Mushroom grey-beige warmed with a touch of pink.

NOCTURNE: Dreamy, pensive, steel blue.

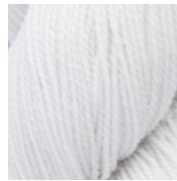

NORWAY: Sea ice. This palest blue is shaded with a wash of grey.

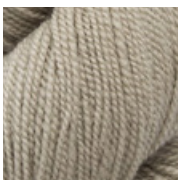

PARCHMENT: Old libraries. This vellum neutral is lit with gold and grounded with the faintest hint of cool green.

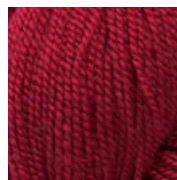

SASHIKO: Saturated natural indigo, inspired by Japanese textiles.

THAW: Cool, silvery white.

VERNAL: A complex green-grey — earthy, atmospheric, and soothing, with gold undertones.

VINTNER: The deep and lingering red of an Oregon pinot noir swirled in the glass.
