WHAT'S NEW TO THE TRADE—FABRICS, FURNISHINGS, AND FABULOUS FINDS

1 Santa Barbara Umbrella's cheery Cirque outdoor umbrella evokes circus tents and the south of France. A 9' h. teak pole and frame and an aluminum base support the 10.5' dia. hexagonal acrylic canopy; a square canopy is also available. Santa Barbara Blue and Lavender Cloud, shown, is one of a range of colorways. sbumbrella.com. 2 The Nottingham dining chair by Formations is an updated take on the traditional bobbin chair. Measuring 23" w. x 24" d. x 42" h., the ebonized-wood piece can be upholstered in c.o.m.; a side chair is also offered. formationsusa.com. 3 Peter Fasano repurposed patterns from his collection of vintage Indian woodblocks when designing his new line of screen-printed wallpapers. Pallavi in Indigo/Oyster, left, and Bina in Camel are shown; matching fabrics are available. peterfasano.com.
