

HOME + DESIGN

DEPARTURES

Fall 2017

STEP RIGHT IN

Perfection in Paris

Michael S. Smith
Takes Malibu

The Insider's Guide to New York

SHOP

1. Dots by Paul Smith for Maharam, a cotton-blend fabric of polka dots over houndstooth, comes in nine colorways, $95 per yard; maharam.com.
2. De Padova's Nota steel floor lamp by Elisa Ossino has adjustable shelves, and there's a wall version too, price upon request; depadova.com.

3. The Fifties chair from Calligaris is seen here in polished brass and Earth velvet, from $455; calligaris.com.
4. Mario Bellini arranged three steel legs at 45-degree angles to create B&B Italia's glass-topped Bolt table, from $8,225; bebitalia.com.

5. Piero Lissoni adds organic curves to his Rod series of sofas with Rod Bean for Living Divani, $23,000 as shown; livingdivani.it.
6. Textile maven Adam Pogue collaborated with design firm Commune on a series of flags, small rugs, and ottomans, $6,000 as shown; communedesign.com.
7. Paris-based designer Christophe Delcourt merged two cones to make Minotti's Noor side table in bronze (pictured) or platinum, $4,035; ddcnyc.com.