THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

glassware for Frama. Had the weighty mouth-blown vessels existed in the Italian artist's day, doubtless he'd have captured them on canvas; from £55 approx for a small stem glass. Ring 00 45 3140 6030, or visit framaph.com.

6 Dior Maison serves up Greek mythology on a plate – specifically a set of six earthenware 'Dee' dessert ones, which can be yours for £700. Ring 020 7172 0172, or visit dior.com.

7 In Kufri founder Mili Suleman's (pattern) book, a home begins with 'natural, imperfectly perfect textures'. 'Utopia', created in collaboration with Commune, consists of eight upholstery fabrics (from $120 per m), all produced in weaving villages in East India. Everything is done by hand, from the dyeing of the yarn (using Azo-free dyes or natural indigo) to the spinning and weaving. Ring 001 817 456 6622, or visit kufrilifefabrics.com.

8 A little bird told us that artist and maker Mark Hearld has designed a new wallpaper for St Jude's. 'Wren' (£96 per 10m roll) is printed in Lancashire in three colourways. Ring 01603 66295, or visit stjudesfabrics.co.uk.

9 Seventy-odd years after he designed it, Gio Ponti's 'D.847.1' desk is still worth writing home about. For £4,892, courtesy of Molteni, you can pen your missives at the honey-stained ash reissue. Visit moltenigroup.com.

10 With his 'Marc Newson for Drummonds' collection, the Australian 'sought to design something I would want to spend my money on'. If you too are prepared to part with your cash for his 'Coln' bath or 'Bibury' brassware, you should expect to fork out £3,960 for the bath-and-shower mixer that's shown here, a floor-standing model in nickel featuring tap heads inspired by vintage Soviet spigots. The unit is available in nine finishes. Ring 020 7376 4499, or visit drummonds-uk.com ■
