[Note: this is the closest ½ way lodging between Negreira (28.0 km) and Cee (25.0 km)]. The route now winds along a series of country lanes through Portaliñas [1.0 km] (seating area) and Abeiroas [0.4 km]. [2.9 km by road to A Picota (left)]. Continue onto old (worn) asphalt road into Corzón [1.4 km] Igrexa de San Cristóbal. Camping Corzón [with plans for an albergue]. Over to the right are the Montes de la Ruña and the highest peak Monte do Castelo/ Ruña (645m) site of an ancient castle with legends of buried gold!]. Turn <left by cemetery to cross río Mazariscos and water mill Muiño de Mallon (left). Turn right> in the village of Mallon [1.2 km].

3.3 km Ponte Olveira Mallon on corner of main road is the well restored traditional town house now converted to a popular albergue. Alb. Casa Loncho with private rooms from €40 All facilities incl. cafe, laundry, taxi. Alb. ③ Olveiroa Xunta.[46÷5] €6 © 658 045 242 (Puri) one of the more inspiring Xunta hostels, reconstructed from traditional houses on either side of quiet village lane. Adj. café/bar O Peregrino (see casa Garrido). Finally Pr As Pías €50-60 © 981 741 520 m: 617 026 005 handsomely reconstructed traditional stone house with restaurant/bar and terrace that gets the evening sun.

The village 'square' has a collection of interesting hórreos and just beyond is the parochial church Igrexa Santiago XII with statue of Saint James above the west door. A short detour (1 km) off the main road is the tiny hermitage of Santa Lucía adjoining the river and fountain of the same name. [Here an endearing tradition is to heal eye ailments by washing them in the clear spring waters and dry them on a cloth, which is then left out to dry – an allusion to drying the tears of remorse at past wrongs in order to heal spiritual blindness and refresh psyche & soul]. Taxi service between hostels and tourist sites in the area such as the waterfall at Ezaro; available from Taxi Loncho (Olveiroa) © 981 741 673 m: 617 026 005.
