Chef-in-Casa is a compact and reliable counter-top machine, suitable for both professional kitchens and anyone who likes making homemade pasta.

Chef-in-Casa kneads all types of flour and produces long and short pasta by simply changing the drawplate.

The machine comes with a drawplate for a 170mm-wide sheet of pasta dough and a manual rotating pasta-cutter knife for short pasta.

It is fitted with a complete line of accessories (which can be purchased separately).

The external framework is in anodised aluminium, the parts that come into contact with the pasta are in stainless steel, and it also features a simple, ergonomic button panel, making it a reliable machine in full compliance with current safety regulations

Professional Cookware

Lacor is the preferred brand of commercial cookware by professional chef's in Europe

The Chef Classic (Professional Cookware) range is made from 18/10 Stainless Steel and is suitable to be used on gas, electric, induction and vitro-ceramic (halogen) cooktops

The Chef Classic range offers excellent resistance to corrosion and to food acids and salts. The steel is smooth, non-porous and very hygienic. It maintains the natural flavour of the cooked food.

The Chef Classic range has a 18/10 Stainless Steel sandwich bottom, which is a layer of aluminium between 2 layers of steel which will always allow the optimal heat diffusion, favouring, saving energy and even cooking.
