

The Business

A fantastic opportunity to join Laine Brew Co, one of the fastest growing craft breweries within the UK, with 70% year-on-year growth. Now is an exciting time to join our team with the plans to significantly grow the sales of our beer through trade and consumer customers.

Born from the inspirational pub and beer scene of Brighton, Laine Brew Co produces a broad range of authentic and innovative craft beers in keg, can, bottle and cask.

The business has recently acquired the Redchurch brewery adding the Redchurch brand to the portfolio. We are currently investing to increase capacity at the Redchurch brewery to create the main production hub for both Laine and Redchurch brands.

With these growth plans at this newly acquired site, we are recruiting for a Brewery Operations Exec.

Job Duties:

- Manage goods in and goods out to ensure the efficient and timely distribution of our products
- Booking 3rd party transport for outbound deliveries and route planning for local deliveries
- General site maintenance and upkeep, includes organisation of the warehouse
- Supplier management for utilities, facilities, and waste
- Day to day liaison with Contract Brewing customers on their requirements
- Stock reporting
- Attend weekly production meeting

Job Role

A Brewery Operations Executive with relevant operational experience and transferable skills. A knowledge of the brewing industry is advantageous but not essential.

Skills and Qualifications:

The individual will require a range of skills:

Organised and structured, task oriented, with good verbal and written communication skills. A competent administrator with good attention to detail, numerate and computer literate, especially Microsoft Office. Confident in communicating with suppliers and customers. Possess a can-do attitude and proactive in problem solving.

Location: Based at the Redchurch Brewery in Harlow, Essex.

Hours: Monday – Friday 8.30 - 4.30pm. Occasional need for flexibility based on workflow.

Salary: £25-28k annually with holiday (20 days plus BH), pension, and staff benefits.