Mounting Location Outdoors

For accurate temperature measurements:

- Choose a location that is not subject to direct weather elements.
- Place on the North side of a building or in a different shady location.
- Direct sunlight will cause your thermometer to read high.
- Hang on the wall from a nail, peg or hook with the built in key hole.

Key Hider Compartment

- Store your spare keys in the secret key hider compartment on the back of your thermometer.
