

How to Write an effective Resume

Sara Moomsaz

ARKWARD

How to get most out of this...

Print or save a copy to fill out: I don't send my slides out after the masterclass, so you'll want to make some notes as you go!

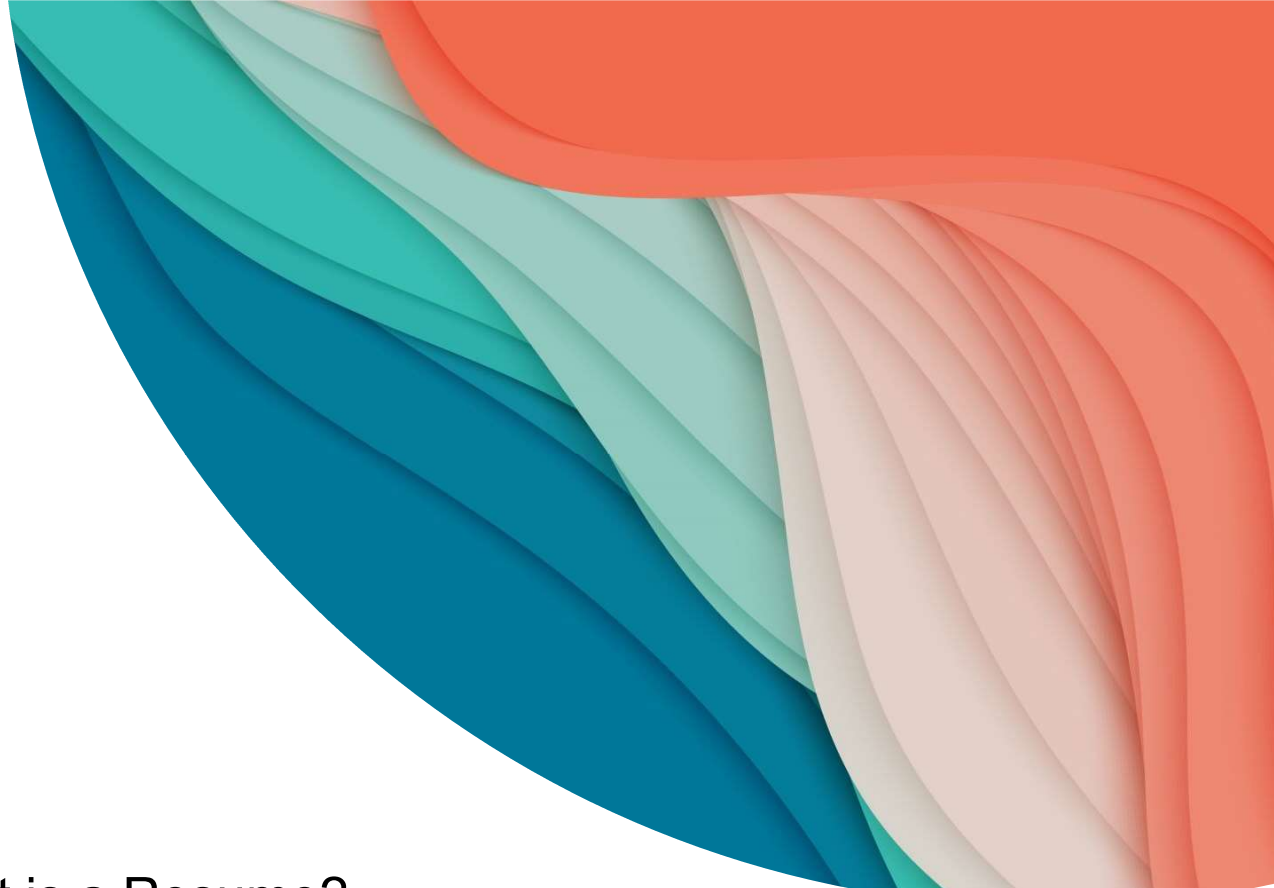

Save your questions for the Q&A at the end: I've added some space in each section for you to jot down your questions.

I Know writing a resume might be scary or confusing but its also SO exciting...

...because it lists all your expertise and achievements and makes you feel proud of yourself. It will also open lots of doors and opportunities to be seen and heard and get you where you want to be.

Don't be stressed by end of this webinar you will feel confident to write your resume and start sharing it with professional world.

Sara M

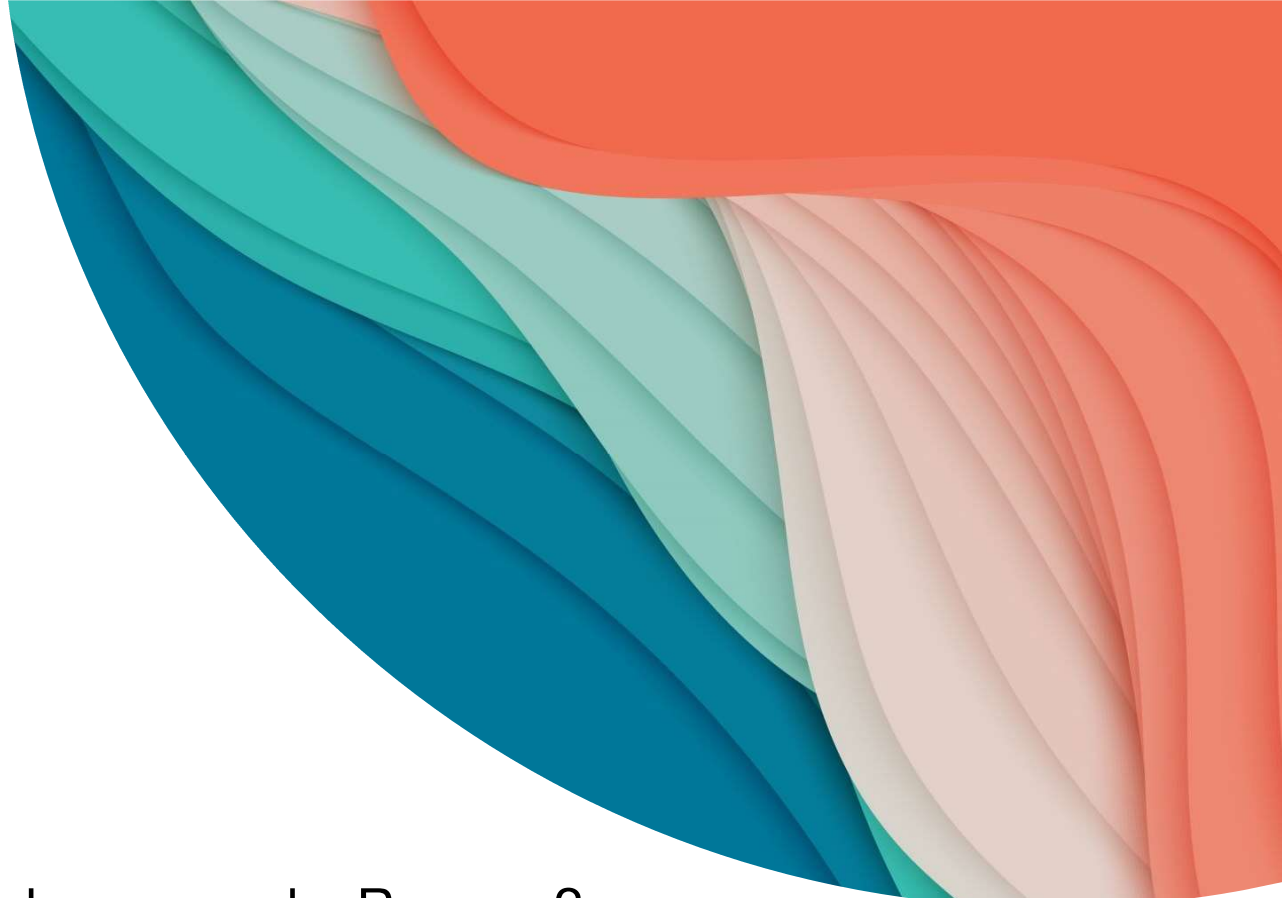

1. What is a Resume?

Four horizontal light pink bars stacked vertically, intended for taking notes or writing answers.

Note + Questions

Four horizontal light pink bars stacked vertically, intended for taking notes or writing questions.

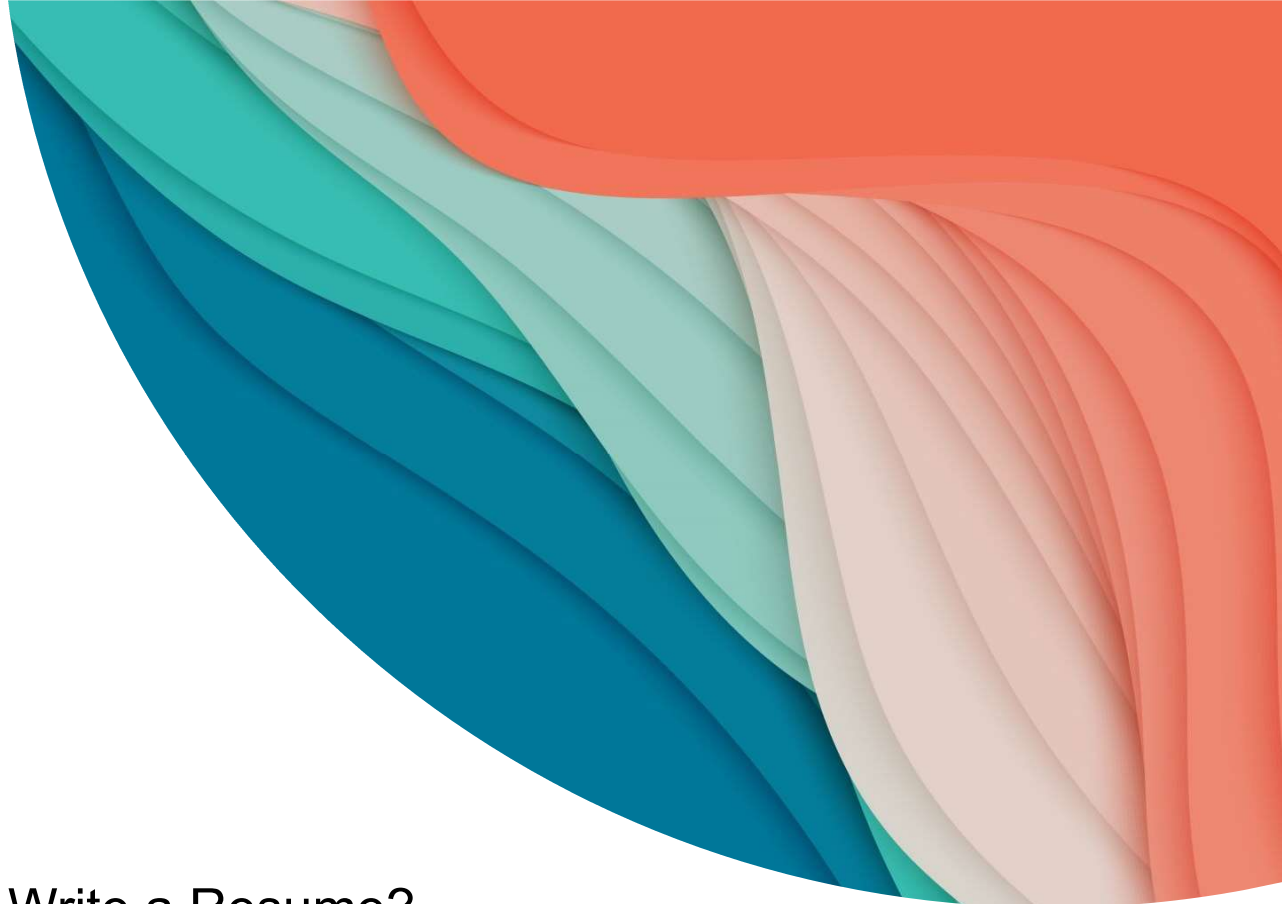

2. Why do you need a Resume?

Four horizontal light pink bars for taking notes.

Note + Questions

Four horizontal light pink bars for taking notes.

How to Write a Resume?

Four horizontal light pink bars stacked vertically, serving as a writing area for the answer to the question above.

Note + Questions

Four horizontal light pink bars stacked vertically, serving as a writing area for notes and questions.

Sara Moomsaz
ARK|WARD

Contact:
sara@arkward.net