New Rebuilt Seagate Website

The new website has been moved to a new host - but retains the same level of security. We continue to NOT store any credit card information. This change has been long overdue. The immediate primary benefits of the new site are:

- 1) Seagate's new website is finally mobile-friendly.
- 2) Tracking information for your orders will now be emailed.
- 3) Shipping costs to Canada are more accurate.

However, due to the change and for security during this transfer, all existing customers will have to set up a new password for their accounts.

Buy 1 Get 1 Free Nopal 90 Caps

Benefits: Seagate freeze-dried Nopal Cactus reabsorbs approx. 50X its dried weight when released into the stomach providing an immediate feeling of fullness and reducing hunger. Unlike other diet products that may artificially stimulate the metabolism, giving a caffeine-like buzz, headache, or that falsely claim to burn fat, Nopal simply and naturally acts like a sponge - absorbing and expanding upon contact with the water and sugars in the stomach. The absorptive properties are temporary, allowing the slow release of the water and sugars, thereby helping to reduce sugar spiking immediately after a high-sugar meal or drink. The high insoluble fiber content (cellulose and lignin) absorbs wastes in the intestines and bowels, pushing them along into and through the colon, making this product an excellent cleanser.
