The words in the word lists consist of sight words and other frequently used words.

The blank lines and spaces are for the learners to add their own words so that they can build up their own spelling dictionary. Longer words can be written over two columns.

Some of the pictures used do not have their words represented in the lists. The learners can find out how to spell them.

Theme words can also be used for spelling tests.

The image features a purple rectangular banner with the word "Sample" written in large, white, outlined letters. A thick diagonal line runs from the bottom-left corner of the banner towards the top-right corner. To the left of the banner, there is a vertical column of words: "soon", "self", "sing", "sleep", "school", "see", "saw", "seen", and "seem". Each word is followed by three blank lines for handwriting practice. In the top-left corner, there is a dark grey square containing the letters "Ss". Above the square are two small cartoon illustrations: a starfish on the left and a cat-like creature on the right. The entire scene is set against a background of horizontal handwriting lines.
