Wash Care

Use a mild detergent and avoid detergents that contain bleach, ammonia or chemicals as they may cause discoloration.

We recommend that you remove the products from the dryer before everything is bone dry. You know your dryer best, so you are the best judge of when to pull the products out for the best results.

If the bedding is slightly damp, you can simply let the goods air-dry a bit before layering everything back on the bed or, if needed, use a light iron.

Line drying your bedding is an environmentally friendly option.
