

GUT-BRAIN-IMMUNE

AuRx[®] BUTYRIC ACID (SHORT CHAIN FATTY ACID)

The Gold Standard Medical Food for Autism Spectrum*

BREAKTHROUGH BUTYRIC ACID DELIVERY

AuRx[®], a revolutionary new medical food, has been specially formulated to support the gut-brain-immune imbalance found in many ASD patients.* Now, thanks to Tesseract's revolutionary delivery technology, butyric acid, an unpalatable, yet metabolically critical substance with all its documented health benefits, becomes a therapeutic reality.

Stabilized Butyric Acid Complex

Palatable taste optimizes patient compliance

Superior solubility, bioavailability, and maximum absorption*

Strategic SCFA delivery to the intestinal tract in single-molecule form

Provides specific nutritional requirements for ASD patients with SCFA gut microbiome deficiencies*

THE TESSERACT EFFECT™

AuRx® and its patent pending CyLoc™ molecular matrix in combination with the patent pending DexKey™ release process ensure AuRx® solubility and release of individual molecules throughout the intestinal tract for optimal bioavailability.

UNPRECEDENTED BUTYRIC ACID DELIVERY

Butyric acid is a short chain fatty acid (SCFA) generated by enteric bacteria following fermentation of insoluble fiber and carbohydrates. Emerging evidence suggests those with autism spectrum disorders (ASDs) are often present with gastrointestinal and immune disorders, inflammation, oxidative stress and mitochondrial dysfunction.* Research has shown some aspects of ASD may improve with butyrate supplementation.*

However, many currently available SCFA products have an unpalatable taste and strong odor, complicating patient compliance. Tesseract's AuRx® – a revolutionary, gold standard medical food with palatable taste optimizes patient compliance to provide unprecedented, gut-brain-immune support for those with Autism Spectrum Disorder.*
