

Heirloom Black Chickpeas

"smoky, memorable flavor"

From Kabul to California!
Introducing our black garbanzo beans with a superior flavor, texture, and nutritious profile.

Exotic in origin but now grown in Northern California, what started as an experiment with a handful of beans from Afghanistan, became a flourishing crop stateside.

- Full, smoky flavor with slightly sweet taste
- Firm texture
- Smaller, consistent size
- Versatile in hot and cold dishes
- Good source of dietary fiber
- Contain Calcium, Folate, Iron, Vitamin C

Cook traditionally or in a pressure cooker.
A healthy, flavorful addition to main courses, appetizers and snacks!
