

Raw Livermore Red Walnuts

"a rare, hidden gem"

These unique walnuts account for only about 2% of the walnut population—a rare, hidden gem.

As rich and delicious as they are beautiful, our rare Livermore Red Walnuts are California grown and packed with nutrients.

- Rich, creamy taste
- Mild, walnut flavor
- Enjoy raw or cooked
- Consistent size and beautiful red color
- Packed with antioxidants
- Loaded with Omega-3s, Vitamin B6 and Magnesium
- Low in tannic acid, so no bitterness

Grab a handful for a treat! Or top salads, desserts, rice and quinoa pilaf, and any recipe that calls for an eye-catching show stopper.
