Body Oil

Truth is, summer really is coming to a slow, painful end. But if you want to glow all the way until the end of summer and beyond (for those of you living in a forever-sunny locale like California), try Makari De Suisse Argan & Carrot Botanical Body Oil to boost your skin's radiance factor.

The Buzz

Quick-absorbing Makari De Suisse Argan & Carrot Botanical Body Oil is made with a potent blend of skin-protecting antioxidants Argan, Sweet Almond, Chamomile, Calendula, Carrot and Soybean oils that renders silky-smooth skin that's nourished and moisturized. Other benefits include helping to treat and prevent stretch marks, soothe dry skin, soften the appearance of wrinkles, and even uneven skin tone. Great for all skin types, this body oil will not leave skin with a greasy residue, and can be used on damp or dry skin.

Why You'll Love It

The glow Makari De Suisse Argan & Carrot Botanical Body Oil gives should be criminal..talk about epic luminosity. Not only will you love the lightweight texture of this fast-absorbing oil, you'll notice that it actually does moisturize your skin, unlike some oils, which seem to sit only on the top layer and do not penetrate. I think one of the best features of of this body oil might be the Sweet Almond scent. Not really sure if it's that ingredient that accounts for this oil's fresh fragrance, but it works, works, works, works, works, works.
