

THE PERFECT FIT GUIDE

It's important to make sure your lovely new sofa will be able to fit into its new home. This guide, put together by comfy experts, will help you measure up your space to ensure our delivery team will be able to get through the door and into place.

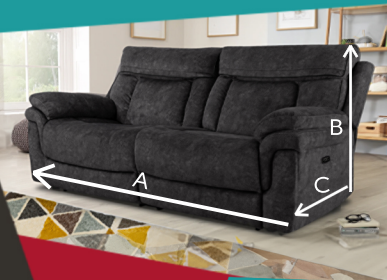

1. YOUR SOFA MEASUREMENTS

Jot down the dimensions of your chosen sofa in the spaces above. These sizes can be found in the dimensions on our website.

A Total sofa width:

B Total sofa height:

C Total sofa depth:

Top tip

Use masking tape or markings to lay out the size of your sofa, giving you an indication if you're happy with it or not!

2. GETTING UP THE STAIRS

If your sofa needs to make it up some stairs, measure the width of the staircase at the narrowest point*. Also remember to take into account of any hand rails or light fixtures.

A Staircase width:

*If you have a bannister and the sofa needs to be lifted over it, check that the distance between the bannister and the ceiling is greater than the depth of the sofa. Once at the top of the stairs, make sure there is enough room on the landing for our delivery guys to manoeuvre your sofa into the right room.

3. GOT A LIFT?

Does your building have a lift that we'll need to use? If so, measure the open door height and width, and the depth of the lift to make sure it will fit inside. If the dimensions are greater than the width, height and depth of your sofa you're fine.

A Total lift width:

B Total lift height:

C Total lift depth:

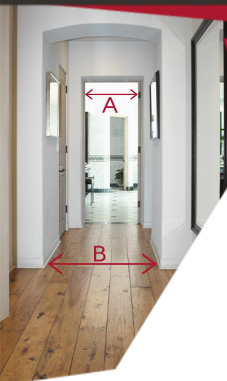

4. NAVIGATING HALLWAYS & DOORS

We need to make sure your sofa can get into the room that you'd like it to sit in. Measure the width of any areas that the sofa must pass through at their narrowest points, such as hallways and doors. Don't forget the additional obstacles such as radiators, shelving ect.
