Any notification of claimed infringement of copyright must include the following:

- (i) A physical or electronic signature of a person authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.
- (ii) Identification of the copyrighted work claimed to have been infringed, or, if multiple copyrighted works at a single online site are covered by a single notification, a representative list of such works at that site.
- (iii) Identification of the material that is claimed to be infringing or to be the subject of infringing activity and that is to be removed or access to which is to be disabled, and information reasonably sufficient to permit us to locate the material.
- (iv) Information reasonably sufficient to permit us to contact the owner of the exclusive right that is allegedly infringed, such as an address, telephone number, and, if available, an electronic mail address at which the complaining party may be contacted.
- (v) A statement that the complaining party has a good faith belief that use of the material in the manner complained of is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law.
- (vi) A statement that the information in the notification is accurate, and under penalty of perjury, that the complaining party is authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.

Any failure to provide all of the above information may result in us taking no action on your complaint. If a complaint is properly provided us, we will contact the alleged infringer. If the alleged infringer properly disputes the allegations of infringement, we may restore the allegedly infringing materials, and will not thereafter remove it or disable access to it without a court order.

Any user of this forum who is found to have infringed multiple times on the exclusive rights of one or more copyright owners is subject to being terminated from the forum.
