

Energy in Practice: Human Bioenergetics & the GSR 2000

Training

This five hour program provides information and instruction in the use of Ergopathics signature vials with the GSR 2000, a bioresonance device created and sold by Canadian based Biosilverstreamgen.

Delivered by Zoom, this program is ideal for wellness practitioners with proficiency in muscle testing and an understanding of anatomy, physiology and body chemistry.

When you purchase this education program, you receive:

- 5 hours of instruction by Zoom (see below for details)
- one 35 page booklet with quick reference chart

The Bioenergetic Stimulator device is purchased directly from Biosilverstreamgen.

NOTE: the information presented in this program is for educational purposes only. This education program does not make claims, diagnose or prescribe or perform any controlled act for which a license is required by law.

Training Aims

- identify dissonance using neuro-muscular feedback with clients using Ergopathics signature vials and samples
- explore client concerns in relation to dissonance and resonance
- explain some of the human energy anatomy
- relay some history of device-based modalities and technologies
- relay concepts in energy medicine
- use the Bioenergetic Stimulator from Biosilverstreamgen
- use a vocabulary relevant to energy medicine in the context of professional practice
