Vineyard Cultivation:

Pierre-Vincent Girardin is a 13th generation Burgundian winemaker who grew up among the vines in his father's Domaine. Starting his own label with the family holdings of Les Folatières in Puligny-Montrachet at the age of 21, he has become a formidable force among young winemakers in Burgundy. Expanding beyond the 4.5 hectares, his family contacts brought him access to top growers in Puligny Folatières, Volnay Clos des Chênes, Pommard Epenots, Corton-Charlemagne, as well as Grand Cru Montrachet. These grapes are from 55+ year old vines.

Vinification:

Indigenous yeast used for fermenting and ageing in 456L barrels.

Tasting Notes:

Yet to be reviewed.

Soil Type:

Jurassic marls and marly limestones

Method:

Organic, Biodynamic
