

Llama Llama, Back to School!

Little Llama is a delightful character who helps young children understand the challenges of family life and learning to live in their communities. Anna Dewdney, the author of 14 books about Little Llama, has become a celebrity. This delightful basket includes two books:

Llama, Llama, Red Pajama (What happens when Mama’s attention has to be directed elsewhere?)

and

Llama, Llama, Back to School (How can Little Llama work with new friends and a new teacher?)

The adorable plush Little Llama is dressed in a striped, size 6 months outfit like the one on the cover of the book.

These are surrounded by a soft and lovely blanket made by our own Sister Elizabeth Jane Wilson, OP.

The blanket is reversible, with a bright unicorn on a blue background on the back side.
