A rich, warming, spicy, aroma, to create calm and peace. The rich, musky fragrance has sensuous, aphrodisiac properties. The earthy tones have a balancing effect on emotions.

Patchouli oil is extracted by steam distillation from the dried, fermented leaves of the Pogostemon cablin plant. In eastern countries, patchouli oil is used for fragrance and to deter insects.

Patchouli improves its fragrance and power with age and is said to have a balancing effect on the emotions. It creates a relaxed atmosphere to ease anxiety and negativity. It is much valued in skincare, especially in scar healing, and is said to have excellent tissue regenerating properties.

Patchouli essential oil has calming and grounding properties. Spiritually, it has been used alone or in blends during prayer and meditation. Due to its balancing and calming effect on the emotions, patchouli oil and is considered helpful for fatigue and anxiety. It is also considered to have aphrodisiac properties.

How to use essential oils

Massage – Both body and facial massage can benefit from the intoxicating aroma of essential oils. Always ensure that you add the essential oil to a carrier oil first, and never apply directly to your skin. A carrier oil, also known as base oil, is used to dilute essential oils before they applied to the skin.

Bathing – There is no better way to unwind than in an essential oil bath, calming oils like Lavender and Clary Sage are especially relaxing. Add 5-10 drops in a bath and disperse vigorously before entering the bath.

Steam inhalation – This is a really good way of helping to relieve blocked sinuses or congestion. Eucalyptus is one of the most popular oils for this. Fill a large bowl with hot (not boiling water), add 3-4 drops of your chosen oil then lean over the bowl placing a towel over your head and slowly breathe in the until you start to feel relief.

Diffusers – There are many diffusers available, one of the most popular being an ultrasonic diffuser which uses water to create a fine mist. These are a great way of enjoying oils throughout the day in your home or office space. Citrus oils are particularly uplifting. Ideally leave your diffuser on for up to an hour at a time, leaving it off for a similar amount of time.
